Royal Conservatoire of Scotland

As host city of the Commonwealth Games, Glasgow is set to be transformed into a cultural hub of activity in summer 2014 with numerous arts festivals, events and concerts taking place throughout July and August.

The Royal Conservatoire of Scotland is at the very heart of Glasgow, and we are proud to launch our biggest summer school programme ever.

With over 70 summer schools for adults and young people, in dance, drama, music, production and screen, we will be at the centre of the action with over 800 students passionate about the performing arts learning with us.

In summer 2014, the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland is the only place to be.
